

Air Formation

Low December Sun

Brighton based five-piece Air Formation return after a two year absence with their fourth album Nothing To Wish For (Nothing To Lose). Matt Bartram (vocals, guitar), Ben Pierce (bass), Richard Parks (keyboards), James Harrison (drums) & Ian Sheridan (guitar) have been recording for the last few months with legendary indie producer Pat Collier. Mastered by Ray Staff at Air Studios, the new album is their most accomplished and mature, and will hit the streets March 2010.

The band released their first two albums Ends in Light (Drive-In Records, 2002) and Stay Inside/Feel Everything (Clairerecords 2004) on independent labels in the US, and signed to UK label Club AC30 in 2005. With an expanded line-up they recorded the well received EP 57 Octaves Below, and followed this in 2007 with the acclaimed album Daylight Storms.

"Daylight Storms is a collage of almost surreal, swathing noise against a backdrop of choir-like vocals and picturesque melodies. 9/10"
Drowned In Sound.

Low December Sun is the first single taken from the album, and is a slice of dark melodic pop in the vein of The Cure's Disintegration era songs. So far the single has been on the 'A' Playlist on NME Radio for two weeks, and has also featured on 6Music.
