Never Lose That Feeling #2

Club AC30 is Londons Premier shoegaze night. Promoting quality noisy gigs around London for the last three years!

Never Lose That Feeling #2 is the second volume of the Club AC30 celebration of Shoegaze music.

Coined by the NME in the late 80's to define a certain genre of noisy guitar bands, Shoegazing has come to encompass (rightly or wrongly) a great chunk of alternative music from that era. Everything from Jesus & Mary Chain, via Spacemen 3 and Galaxie 500, to Ride, Slowdive, My Bloody Valentine.

Volume #2 follows the September 2005 release of Volume #1 and features once again sixteen artists we love perfoming their interpretations of "shoegaze classics".

Nashville duo Hammock open the cd with a gloriously sprawling rendition of Black Metallic, the first of three Catherine Wheel tracks including I Want To Touch You by Piney Gir. Spiritualized and Galaxie 500 are brought right up to date by Madrid and Fiel Garvie respectively, and there are three My Bloody Valentine songs including a chillingly minimal No More Sorry by Radion's Stefan Németh and Martin Siewert.

The album also includes Emma Anderson from Lush with her new band Sing-Sing covering Sunbathing by Lush, a gorgeous cover of Chapterhouse classic Pearl by Jake Shillingfords' Exileinside and Luna guitarist Britta Phillips with a version of How You Satisfy Me by Spectrum.

Boston shoegazers Drop Nineteens bring the album to an end, with original singer Paula Kelley covering the Ride classic Vapour Trail, followed by Below The Sea with Delaware, and Robert Dillam from Adorable with his new band Viet Cong Blues Project bringing everything to a close with their interpretation of Winona.

Quick picks for tired hacks:

Track 1	Hammock	Black Metallic
Track 11	Exileinside	Pearl
Track 12	Britta Phillips	How You Satisfy Me
Track 14	Paula Kelley	Vapour Trail
