

Air Formation

It's Over Now / Formation 2

This is the sixth in a series of singles released by London live night/record label Club AC30. The series is called As & When, and will follow the same general format of limited edition numbered 7" and digital release. The theme is "bands we like" and the frequency is "as & when".

Air Formation hail from Sussex in the south of England. They are Matt Bartram (vocals, guitar), Ben Pierce (bass), Richard Parks (keyboards), James Harrison (drums) & Phil Macy (guitar). The band has been creating uplifting song based space-rock since late 1999.

Born out of a love for Flying Saucer Attack and the likes of Spacemen 3 and Jesus & Mary Chain Air Formation create songs awash with heavily delayed guitar and feedback, interwoven with keyboard drones and whispered vocals. Over the past 7 years the band has released two albums Ends in Light (Drive-In Records 2002) and Stay Inside/Feel Everything (Clairecords 2004,) alongside numerous other releases.

The turning point for the band came in 2005 when they recorded the beautiful 57 Octaves Below EP with legendary producer Pat Collier (The House of Love). As well as being their first recording with an expanded line up it was also their first release on UK label Club AC30 and was extremely well received..... "57 Octaves Below is simply astonishing, as each track could hold its own as a formal "A side" among any peers both past and present. Remarkable. 9/10" Drowned In Sound.

January 2007 saw the release of Daylight Storms, their third album. Loudly proclaimed "undoubtedly one of this nation's best kept secrets" by Drowned In Sound, this became a blog favourite and a bit of a cult classic.

It's Over Now shows a quieter side of Air Formation, but essential none the less. The guys will be back with a new album in mid 2008.
