

Televise

Biography

Formed by ex-Slowdive member Simon Scott after late night jams with drummer Nick King and bass player Alex Dowding. Jamie Armstrong was added on guitar in January '04 to complete the lineup after writing an imaginary soundtrack to NASA's space exploration videos.

"Smile" released on London's AC30 label in Autumn 2004, "Outside Out" released on Club AC30 in May 2005.

A handful of gigs in the capital at ULU, The Barfly, Spitz and the Water Rats have got people anxious to hear what Televise will do next.

Reverb, delay, distortion, digital silence, analogue destruction and very very good songs form the distinct sound.

Echoes of 4AD's finest moments, Thrill Jockey's freedom and Creation's greatest signings are clues to the sound.

"Music is limitless, endless possibilities of sound, no restrictions or guidelines, freedom is found."
