

Trouble Everyday

Biography

Trouble Everyday is Kyle Costill vocals and guitar, Jesse Dillon drums, Chris Doyle guitar and David Kain bass and vocals.

Trouble Everyday is excited to introduce their 3 song EP, (sympathy) to the world on June 13th! The energetic and hauntingly intimate followup to 2004's critically praised Days Vs. Nights, (sympathy) will be released worldwide via iTunes by Basic Function recordings, with complete artwork available for download on both the band and label's website. The EP begins with the rich guitars and infectuous hooks of Mostly People Out There (mostly), followed by the textured title track, (sympathy), and goes out with guns blazing in the final introspective ode to decadence, Raise Her Mirror. Please note that this EP is available EXCLUSIVELY AS A DIGITAL DOWNLOAD RELEASE through sites such as iTunes throughout the world.

In such a short amount of time Trouble Everyday have managed to make their presence known, recently supporting The Killers on four sold out dates of their recent US tour, and completing two UK Tours booked on their own where they completed an XFM Live On Air Session in London. They currently receive air play on XFM, the John Peel Show on RadioOne in the UK, Juice FM in Brighton, Y100 in Philadelphia, and many college radio stations .They have also played a number of shows with acts such as Franz Ferdinand, Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Buzzcocks, The Mooney Suzuki, Saves the Day, and many more.

In addition to playing live, Trouble Everyday have been included on Urban Outfitters Fall Sampler CD with artists such as Bjork, Elliot Smith, Razorlight, The Libertines, Le Tigre etc.

Trouble Everyday (sympathy) EP available on iTunes from June 13th 2005.
